What does the decline of the US dollar mean for our international monetary system? If the dollar fails, global economic collapse is almost inevitable. So how can we be prepared for the ensuing chaos? And is it possible to protect our personal wealth? The Death of Money gives honest insight into the serious economic issues the world is about to encounter and how these problems have been exacerbated by government intervention. Recognize the telltale signs of the disaster to come, and understand exactly what you can do to ensure you are prepared. You will learn:

- That the government has merely postponed our economic issues, instead of solving them
- How to watch the market for signs of the financial system's destruction
- What you should be investing in to survive the coming economic collapse.
