Donna Bobek Schmitt : Advances in Accounting Behavioral Research: 18 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Advances in Accounting Behavioral Research: 18:

Advances in Accounting Behavioral Research publishes high-quality research encompassing all areas of accounting including financial, auditing, taxation, managerial and information systems, addressing a broad range of issues that affect the users, preparers and assurers of accounting information. Further, this research incorporates theory from, and contributes knowledge and understanding to, applied psychology, sociology, management science, and behavioral economics.

Editors Bobek Schmitt, Clinton, Daigle, Hageman, Radtke, Robb, and Wright present students, academics, and researchers with a collection of academic papers and scholarly articles focused on contemporary research into accounting behavior. The contributions that make up the main body of the text are devoted to negativity bias in investors reactions to board of directors risk oversight disclosure; the effects of Guanxi and compensation structure on the objectivity of Chinese internal auditors; variance reporting, belief revision, and profitability, and a wide variety of other related subjects.
