Deirdre N. McCloskey : The Rhetoric of Economics (Rhetoric of the Human Sciences) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Rhetoric of Economics (Rhetoric of the Human Sciences):

A classic in its field, this pathbreaking book humanized the scientific rhetoric of economics to reveal its literary soul. Economics needs to admit that it, like other sciences, works with metaphors and stories. Its most mathematical and statistical moments are properly dominated by comparison and narration, that is to say, human persuasion. The book was McCloskey's opening move in the development of a "humanomics," and unification of the sciences and the humanities on the field of ordinary business life.
