Reuven Bryer : The Seminar (Morgan James Fiction) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Seminar (Morgan James Fiction):

Isquo;The Seminarrrsquo; is a fiction novel that includes actual valuable information about how to attain riches during any state of the economy, even when achieving success appears to be a futile endeavor. This is fueled by a mesmerizing mysterious love story composed with science-fiction overtones, yet exhibits reality and fiction (only paradigms) potentially separating winners from losers in the entrepreneurial realm.

About the Author Reuven Bryer is the youngest of three sons whose father was a Rabbi, physicist, jeweler, watchmaker, metaphysicist, and writer of books on 'Powder Metallurgy', 'Carbide Tips', 'Pragmatic Mysticism', and 'A Rabbi's Interpretation of Metaphysics.' His distant uncle was the founder of the Periodic Chart of Elements, Isaac Mendeleev. Reuven, at the age of 8, wrote a book on the Human Eye. He has also written promotional copy for several Rock and Blues bands in New York. He has been a musician since he was a child and occasionally plays RB, Blues, Rock, Classical, and Jug Band music. Reuven was a vocalist and conductor in a Southern Baptist Church choir in Northern California. He was a music and philosophy major in Southern California. He has been a builder in the construction industry working in six different decades. He is a member of the AIA and a former member of the USGBC. He has lectured on Basic Green Building Technology incorporating Holism to architects and engineers with a goal of extending and raising the quality of life here on this planet. Reuven was a full time student at a Chassidic Rabbinical Seminary in Brooklyn New York for six years. He has taught Sunday school and Bible study incorporating Chassidic and Kabbalistic philosophies. He is a volunteer animal abuse investigator for the Humane Society of Louisiana. Currently, he is also a Reconnective Healing Practitioner. He is the father of three; Heather, Kristen, Marcus, and the grandfather of Riley Star.
