KyeongAe Choe, Pushkar Pradhan : Unleashing Economic Growth: Region-Based Urban Development Strategy for Nepal (ESA SP) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Unleashing Economic Growth: Region-Based Urban Development Strategy for Nepal (ESA SP):

The book provides an overview of the economic, political, and social environment in Nepal and the challenges confronting the country in eliciting its economic growth potential. The book provides an insightful framework of an inclusive development strategy in the context of symbiotic relationships between urban and rural areas as well as among the three eco-belts, i.e., tarai, hills, and mountain areas. Against this backdrop, the strategy calls for prioritized and focused investments on the region's growth potential to induce maximum economic growth impact.
